

KISSINGER BIGATEL & BROWER REALTORS®

Why List Your Home with KBB? Exposure!

In addition to having the most experience in the market and being the most committed to you with our customer service, we are also the most in tune with technology. Here are some great facts about our website that will help us sell your house when you decide to list with KBB...

- 82% of all home buyers now shop online.
- 1kbb.com has over 2.1 million page views already in 2008! (Jan – May)
- Our site is visited over 30,000 times each month by more than 13,000 different visitors each month.
- Each visitor to our website views approximately 14 pages while on 1kbb.com.
- The average visitor spends more than 8 minutes on our site each time they come!
- 1kbb.com comes up as the number one site in Google for 31 different searches.
- Google (the number one search engine) considers 1kbb.com an authority site for real estate.

#1 since 2004 and growing every month!

Google considers us the Authority!

When Google trusts your site, they give you a special listing in the search results for the keywords where they think you are best. This is called an authority listing. Google not only ranks you 1st, but shows users multiple listings from your site.

Nowhere can you get more exposure for your home than on our #1 website!

www.1kbb.com